

As a parent of middle and high school children, I cannot stress how often the kids and their friends listen to K-LOVE and how glad we all are to have a station where we not only like the music, but aren't going to be offended or embarrassed. Please do not let an LPFM take priority over the FM translator.